THE CIRCULATION OF THE DIS-PATCH IS LARGER THAN THE COMBINED CIRCULATION OF ALL THE OTHER DAILY NEWSPAPERS OF THE CITY.

FRIDAY ..... APRIL 24, 1874.

LOCAL MATTERS.

THE CONSERVATIVE CLUBS OF RICHMOND .-Our Conservative clubs in the different portions of the city have gone carnestly to work for the coming campaign, and our people may rest assured that the young men of Richmond remain unflagging in their devotion to their best interests. The Kemper Kampaign Klub held an important meeting on Wednesday night, and the Old Dominion held another last evening. A commendable feature in the constitution of the Kemper Klub is set forth in the following paragraph, taken from their recent take the final vote. If it fails of passage then circular to contributing members: "It is deemed proper, in conclusion, to call special attention to the fact that this club utterly declines to intervene in nominations. and proposes only to carry them when made so far us its efforts may, to a successful issue." The same feature exists in the organization of the Old Dominion Club, and "the boys' have as their motto, "Nominate whom you please, and we will work and vote to carry the ticket."

THE CONSERVATIVES OF OREGON HILL RE-PUDIATE THE REFORMERS OF CLAY WARD.—At a meeting of a large number of Conservative citizens of Oregon Hill, recently held at the chapel, a resolution was unanimously adopted repudiating the reformers of Clay Ward, and declaring it their intention to support the Conservative ticket and none

Conservative Committee.-The City Conservative Committee will hold its regular weekly meeting at 8 o'clock to-night.

PARDONED BY THE GOVERNOR .- GOVERNOR Kemper yesterday pardoned Frederick Evans, who was sentenced by the Hustings Court of Richmond to the chain-gang for twelve months for larceny. The Governor says: "Three boys were tried for the same offence, of which the prisoner was not most guilty. The other two, tried by one jury, were sentenced to imprisonment for sixty days; the prisoner, tried by a different jury, was sentenced as before stated. Pardon granted because-First, it equalizes the administration of legal punishment; second, the prisoner has been sufficiently punished; third, he recently, at an accident endangering the life of the officer who had him in charge, rescued the officer instead of making his escape, as he could have done; fourth, pardon recommended by the Commonwealth's attorney, who prosecuted, and by others connected with the trial and with the punishment of the prisoner."

ARREST OF A FUGITIVE FROM JUSTICE .- A bailiff of Petersburg arrived here yesterday with a bench-warrant, issued by Judge Mann, of the Petersburg Hustings Court, for the arrest of a notorious negro named George Norfolk. There were two charges of larceny gainst Norfolk, when he left Petersburg and came to Richmond, and, under the name of Tom Davis, got employment as driver. Having been furnished with a description of the accused, Detective John Wren made a search for him, and in half an hour discovered him seated upon a coal-cart. He was immediately arrested and lodged in the First station-house, and will be carried back to Petersburg this morning.

THE LATE FIRE--A CARD OF THANKS FROM MESSRS. HAXALL, CRENSHAW & Co.-A force of hands was at work yesterday cleaning the bricks at the scene of the late fire, and making other preparations to rebuild.

Messrs. Haxall, Crenshaw & Co. publish this morning a card in the Dispatch returning their thanks to the Fire Department, as well as to many other of their fellow-citizens, for assistance at the late fire. The concern hope in a very few weeks to be prepared to supply their customers regularly with corn meal. They also anticipate the total restoration of their establishment, and expect to be ready very shortly to resume purchases of wheat.

SUDDEN DEATH .- Mr. Thomas R. Jones, who resided on Twenty-seventh street near the corner of P, was taken sick suddenly yesterday between 8 and 9 o'clock, and died at noon. Mr. Jones was a pressman by trade, and was about fifty-five years of age. Springfield Division, No. 167, Sons of Temperance, and Crystal Temple of Honor and Temperance, No. 3, of which societies Mr. Jones was a member, will parade to pay the last sad tribute of respect to his memory.

ELECTION OF PRESIDENT OF A NEW INSU-BANCE COMPANY .- The commissioners of the Tobacco Fire and Marine Insurance Company of this city held a meeting yesterday. Dr. David Newcomb tendered his resignation as president. It was accepted, and P. G. Strong, Esq., chosen to fill the vacancy. The following additional commissioners were appointed: Dr. W. M. Withers, and Messrs, R. W. Oliver and W. J. Gentry. The president was authorized to open books of subscription to the capital stock of the company.

THE DANVILLE RAILBOAD GAUGE MEETING. The meeting called to consider the proposed change of gauge of the Richmond and Danville railroad, and continued by adjournment, will be held to-night at 8 o'clock, at Assembly Hall. The interest felt by all citizens on this important subject will doubtless ensure a very full turn out, as on the former occasion.

Sons of TEMPERANCE .-- The semi-annual session of the colored Grand Division of Sons of Temperance will be held in Leesburg, Loudoun county, on Wednesday next. Dele gates who attend the Convention will be sold half-fare tickets over the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad. They will leave this city on Tuesday night by the express train at 9:30 o'clock and reach Leesburg at 4:30 A. M. Wednesday. The Convention assembles at 10 A. M. on Wednesday.

UNABLE TO ACCEPT .- Right Rev. F. M. Whittle, assistant bishop of the diocese of Virginia, has been forced to decline to preach a sermon to the English settlers of Virginia in this city, at the Monumental church, on May 24th, the day preceding the celebration of the Queen's birthday here, for the reason that his attendance will be required at the Church Convention which begins at Charlottesville on the 20th of that

INSPECTION OF THE MILITARY. - Company B (Walker Light Guard) will assemble at 8 e'clock to-night for inspection, in accordance with regimental orders. The Rickmond Grays will also assemble at the armory to-night at 8 o'clock for inspection. The Stonewall Guard were inspected last

THE WEATHER .- The weather yesterday morning was cold, damp, and rainy. In the afternoon, however, it cleared off beautifully, but by nightfall it clouded up again and the rain fell very heavily for a time.

MR. GEORGE L. HAYNES Was elected quartermaster sergeant instead of commissary of Lynchburg, Petersburg, Norfolk, and opinion. Staunton, and of smaller commercial communities of the State, voted against it because of the oppressive tax it laid upon mer-On motion of Mr. Pridemore, the vote by which the bill failed was reconsidered. It is understood that if so amended as to place what he considers a proper tax upon transportation, telegraph, and other such companies he will vote for the bill. This provision, if incorporated, to be, however inoperative if the General Assembly passes a special bill levying a tax upon these subjects. Such a bill is now under consideration in the House of Delegates. With Mr. Pride more's vote added to those it received las night the bill can pass the Senate.

Several amendments have been engrafted upon it, and in any event it will become necessary to send it back to the House of Delegates. At 1 o'clock to-day the Senate will it is utterly dead, and the bill will be returned to the House "rejected." It is proper to say that Messrs. Holladay and Wynne voted for all amendments proposing to lighten the burden upon the commercial community, but voted for the bill upon its passage preferring it, bad as it is, to no tax-bill.

AMENDMENTS TO THE GRAND JURY LAW .-The General Assembly has passed and sen to the Governor for his approval the follow ng act in relation to grand juries:

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly, That sections 1 and 3 of chapter 200 of the Code of 1873, as amended by an act entitled $2.50. 'An act to amend and reenact sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 9 of the 200th chapter of the Code H. Johnson (negro), was fined $2. of 1873. in relation to grand juries," apof 1873, in relation to grand juries," approved March 27th, 1874, be amended and eenacted so as to read as follows:

"1. There shall be a grand jury at each regular term of the Circuit Court, and at any special term thereof; and at any term of a corporation court, upon the order of such court, or the judge thereof in vacation; and authority is also hereby given to the said Circuit and Corporation Courts, during any term, to order the empanneling of grand juries for such term. "3. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the corporation court, at least five days before the terms of the corporation courts designated under the first section of this act, and of the clerk of the circuit court, at least five days before the regular terms thereof, or on order of the judge thereof, in vacation, at any time before a special term, or upon the order of said corporation or Circuit Court, at any time to place in the hands of the officer of such court lists of the grand jurors selected by lot as provided in the previous section, made off by township or wards, as the case may be, according to the place of residence of the several grand jurors, and embracing a sufficient number of such persons to form such grand jury; and it shall thereupon be the duty of such officer to summon the per sons mentioned in such lists to attend on the first day of the regular or special terms of said courts, or on the day designated in the order of the court." 2. This act shall be in force from its pas-

THE PHILHARMONIC CONCERT LAST with an audience composed of the Elite and fashion of the city-an audience at once appreciative and critical-to listen to the magnificent programme prepared by Mr. Wheat for the complimentary benefit tendered the Philharmonic Association. The sudden rainstorm that came up just before 8 o'clock kept many away, and but for this fact the capacity of the building would un-doubtedly have been tested. Wrapt attention was given to the music throughout, and the beartiest and most genuine applause greeted the entire performance. The overture from 'Don Juan," by Mozart, opened the entertainment with its sparkling and ever-fresh harmonies. This was followed by the "Bu-gle Song," sung by the Association with a degree of artistic excellence, which plainly evinced what wonderful progress they have made under their indefatigable director, and was most enthusiastically received. The "Ave Maria," by Abt, as sung by the Mendelssohn Sextette, was one of those exquisite creations of that lovely composer which never fails to win the applause of an appreciative public, and in this instance it came in for a large share of applause. But to our thinking the gem of the evening was the "Capriccio Brillant," by Mendelssohn. This exquisite piano-forte work was rendered by Mr. Wheat in the most thoroughly masterly manner, and was, as he doubtless intended it, at once a powerful exponent of the zeal and proficiency of the performer in rendering the work of his illus trious predecessor in a manner worthy of its beauties and a grand stroke for the art of his adoption. It fairly brought down the house and Mr. Wheat must have felt gratified at the evidence of appreciation which his audience gave him.

The first part of the programme closed with the "Soldier's Chorus," from Faust, and old and hackneyed as it is, was sung with such fervor, and was so well supported by the orchestra and band, that it excited an sette, Joseph Carter. unusual degree of military ardor in the audience, who would not rest satisfied without its repetition. The second part of the programme opened with the ever-welcome overture to "Semiramis" by Rossini, and was rendered admirably. It cannot well be heard too often. This was followed by the "Chorus of Pilgrims," from "Tanubauser," by Wagner, which was sung as only the "Philharmo nics" can sing it. It is a superb musica conception, and furnishes a powerful argument for the "Music of the Future," as sustained by its great High Priest Wagner. It has been sung before by the Philharmo nics, but never as finely as it was rendered last night. The next piece was the new and popular waltz from the comic French opera "La sary of the order Monday. The programme fille de Madame Angot," which is now all embraces a parade, addresses at church, and the rage in musical circles, and was arranged | a banquet at night. for this occasion by Mr. Wheat for the Kreutzer Octette. It is as fresh and sparkling as a bottle of Peifer Heidsick, and although Mr. Wheat was compelled to teach it to the octette in a very short time, it was sung with all the elan and ardour the enticing rythm of the waltz called for, and was loudly encored. The "Trio," by Reissiger, as played by Messrs. Wheat, Kessnich, and Thilow, is one of those classical but truly beautiful compositions which require no small degree of cultivation in the divine art to comprehend; but it is hoped that it will not be long before our people generally will fully appreciate this refined order of music, for its effect is unquestionably of a nature that both elevates and refines. It was rendered in a finished manner. The concert closed with the "Watch on the Rhine," the great national song of the Germans in their late war with France. It was sung in German by the Philharmonics, and was accompanied by Kessnich's orchestra with all the fervor of their Teuton souls. It stirred the very soul with its warmth and grandeur, and was a fitting close to this truly grand performance.

We cannot close this notice without expressing our great appreciation of the good New York, now in this city, who was stricken these refined entertainments are doing in positively take place 5th May. good in this community.
